Location | Brighton

PT FLSA Classification | Non-Commissioned, Non-Exempt, Part Time

Reports to | Student Lead

Influenced by | Student Champion

Position Summary:

The Student Coordinator is responsible for providing support to all leaders, volunteers, and other aspects of the Student Ministry for both middle school and high school programs and events. The Student Coordinator will work to maintain alignment through campus constants while pursuing creativity and innovation in contextual expressions. This will require having a “Do whatever it takes” mentality, being devoted to learning (extremely teachable), and a willingness to be part of the big picture of what 2|42 Students are doing in a multi-site context.

As a 2|42 Community Church Staff Member:

- Meet 2|42’s Leadership Expectations
- PT Attend “All Staff” meetings, Campus Staff events as part-time hours allow, and attend quarterly Leadership Community events
- Respond to all correspondence (email, voicemail, Slack, etc.) within 24 hours
- Lean on the systems and resources provided by 2|42 community Church (our databases, leadership pipeline, and any cross-campus interactions)

What To Expect From Us:

- Clear expectations for your leadership, ministry impact, and work-flow
- A work environment that will challenge and inspire you to be the best follower of Christ you can be (ex: Jesus first, then spouse, then family, then ministry)
- A leadership team that trusts you
- A leadership team committed to being led by God to impact our communities
- Coaching and support for your God-given calling
- A church that encourages and fans your gifts and talents

Job Responsibilities include but not limited to:

- Be one of the main influencers providing leadership to teams for both high school and middle school ministry.
- Constantly raising the bar of excellence and expectations of programming and events through excellent vision casting, challenging directly, and caring personally.
- Production, development, organization, and upkeep of all team training resources.
- Constantly collaborating with the Brighton Student Staff in order to maintain a sense of alignment across ministry areas, especially in all programming and event areas..
- ALWAYS be a team player and to have an unstoppable mindset when it comes to helping students take next steps with God. (We LOVE solution-minded people!)
- Grow your ministry to reach as many students as possible.

- Grow your teams to include the most high-capacity volunteers and leaders as possible.
- Track and measure the growth and effectiveness of your ministry.
- Be a “Leader of Leaders” who is capable of significant recruitment and getting other people on mission in order to help more students take more next steps with God than you’re capable of doing on your own.
- All other duties as assigned.

Personal Characteristics:

- Commitment to Jesus Christ (personal faith and devotional life).
- A passionate love for the church and a healthy understanding of its history.
- Solid commitment to the authority of Scripture and a well-developed personal theology.
- Warm, encouraging personality that connects well with others.
- Great recruiter and trainer of others.
- A team player who’s able to both follow and lead while always being FLEXIBLE.
- A Christ-honoring lifestyle marked by servanthood, generosity, joy, and prayer.
- A growing passion to shepherd others in their walk with God and to work effectively with many key leaders is necessary.
- Integrity in finances, relationships, and time management are expected.
- Active involvement in the leadership of the church.
- Commitment to maintaining healthy accountable relationships.

Desired Qualifications:

- A college degree is preferable.
- A background of at least 5 years prior experience at a multi-site church is preferable.
- A proven track record of growth in a previous ministry setting is preferable.
- A heart for high school students and their families is a must.
- A humble approach and a desire to learn is a must.

Character:

The successful candidate will have a deep and growing relationship with God, active involvement in the leadership of the church and campus, and have a commitment to maintaining healthy and accountable relationships. A Christ-honoring lifestyle marked by, servanthood, generosity, joy, a love for bible study and prayer. A growing passion to shepherd others in their walk with God and to work effectively with many key leaders is necessary. Integrity in finances, relationships, and time management are expected.

Competency:

Outside of the expectations listed above, other leadership competencies are required: team building, vision-casting and training leaders for ministry; ability to thrive in a fast-moving environment; excellent working knowledge of the Bible; tactical thinker with proven ability to equip leaders and organize functional structures; transformational leader of leaders; effective communicator to adults of all ages; proven effectiveness in a multi-staff & multi-campus setting; able to connect with people across generations.

Cultural Fit:

All Ministry positions at 2|42 work in a team. You will need to work well with existing team members and align to decisions that are made, even if you don't agree with them. A good team member has open and honest conversations, allows tensions to exist within the team but always supports the team's decisions and directions outside of the team meetings. Relational intelligence will be a key component to ensuring collaboration with the ministry teams.
